

Kavi OOGARAH

Chief HR Officer
Mauritius Telecom

Industry 5.0 Practitioner, People 5.0,
Organizational Transformation, Young HR
Professional Award, Writer 5-star Redefine Vivid

Kavi OOGARAH is a seasoned Chief Human Resources Officer (CHRO) with over two decades of exposure both locally and internationally in the corporate world. Kavi had his footprints in conglomerates. He holds a Master's degree in Human Resources Management from Edith Cowan University, Australia.

As a strategic HR leader, driving organizational transformation, Kavi is always in the pursue to deliver innovative HR solutions aligning with business goals enhancing employee experience and optimizing workforce performance. As an award-winning HR professional, recognized with the prestigious Young HR Professional Award, Kavi holds a strong commitment towards excellence in human resources management, earning accolades for pioneering HR practices and fostering a culture of continuous improvement and innovation. He is also the founder of a think tank with business and academic leaders to cultivate tomorrow's leaders.

Kavi has been entrusted with the responsibilities as being a strategic leader who will champion a culture of excellence & innovation. Kavi will drive the transformation exercise and the Digital HR agenda.

Kavi is appointed as Chief Human Resources Officer since 1 June 2024.

