*Managing Director
Cernol Ltd*

Industry 5.0 Practitioner, FMCG Expert,
Collective Leadership, Sustainable Growth

Olivier CONSTANTIN is the Managing Director of Cernol Ltd.

Having performed at senior management levels in different sectors (Hotel, FMCG, Manufacturing), Olivier has acquired a set of transferable skills that could be useful in different industries. Passionate about bringing changes, he is known for being a change agent as he enjoys getting into processes and see how these can improved. His career brought to lead through diversity eased by his deep respect for people and cultures. As time passed by, he realised that prime motivation was help his colleagues to grow to their next level. Today, Olivier uses his skills to develop sustainable strategies and implement them where he works.

He believes that his future lies within companies lead with a vision and ready to question the status quo.
