Shalini JUGESSUR currently leads Accenture Technology in Mauritius and Vietnam, and holds director positions at Accenture Services (Mauritius) Ltd and Accenture Vietnam (Linkbynet) Ltd. Her primary focus is steering over 2,000+ skilled engineers in bringing innovation, new technology and industry knowledge to help Accenture's clients innovate at scale, transform, and grow their businesses.

She is also a non-executive director on the board of the Mauritius Institute of Directors. Shalini champions Accenture's Inclusion/Diversity & Equality programs in Mauritius. She is passionate about responsible business practices and sustainability, fostering initiatives that support the local economy in Mauritius via collaborations with non-Governmental organizations on environmental and societal issues.

Her tenure at Accenture began in 2009, with her elevation to Technology business lead in 2019. Before Accenture, Shalini worked as a project manager at Total Energies in Paris, France. She is an alumnus of Centrale-Supélec, France, where she studied Information Systems and Computer Science Engineering. Further enhancing her expertise, Shalini completed the Accenture Technology Executive Development program with MIT Sloan School of Management in 2017 and an Innovation Advisory course at Stanford Graduate School of Business in 2021. Shalini actively participates in people development, focusing on coaching and mentorship. She supports initiatives like Hour of Code and Cracking the Code, aimed at nurturing technological skills among children and youngsters.
