*Data Analysis Manager
BDO East Africa*

Industry 5.0 Practitioner, Data Analytics

Soumya is a seasoned Data Governance and Analytics professional currently at BDO, where I focus on leveraging AI, Machine Learning, Automation, and advanced data visualization techniques to drive actionable insights and enhance decision-making processes. My expertise lies in crafting robust data strategies that align with business goals, ensuring data integrity, compliance, and governance across various domains.

With a strong foundation in analytics and a passion for innovation, I continuously explore the intersection of technology and data to implement solutions that not only optimize operations but also pave the way for future growth. Whether it's through developing AI-driven models, automating complex workflows, or creating intuitive visualizations, my goal is to empower organizations with the tools and insights they need to succeed in an increasingly data-driven world.
